ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

summer session

IMPORTANT NOTICE

NO REFUNDS WILL BE MADE FOR ELEMENTARY CLINICS OR MUSIC!!!

Stephen Oselinsky,
Summer Program Director
Marple Newtown Schools

Elementary School Clinics are designed for pupils now enrolled in grades one through six. The elementary clinics in Mathematics and Reading are held at the Brown School in Broomall, with three classes of each subject offered daily. Sessions are scheduled from 8:15 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.; 9:45 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.; and, 11:15 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Students may be considered for one or both clinics. Teachers will be available for conferences from 12:30 to 1:00 p.m. daily. Early applications for these clinics are suggested to insure best placement. The $35.00 fee is due by July 2 1971. Confirmation of acceptance will be sent to applicants;confirmation will be sent by Saturday,June 26. The clinics begin Monday,June 28 and continue through Friday, Aug. 6 CORRECTIVE READING: For children in grades one through six. The child with one or two levels of retardation in reading would benefit from this program. Recommendations are made in Marple Newtown Schools for children who would benefit from this clinic; however, parents need not receive a recommendation in order to enroll children in this program.Emphasis is on small group instruction in corrective reading.

DEVELOPMENTAL READING: For children in grades one through six. The child who is now reading on or above reading level may attend this clinic. Reading weaknesses receive major attention and a strong study skills course prepares sixth graders for the Junior High School (Note:Successful completion of a level in reading clinics will enable the child to advance to a higher level in regular school reading programs when assignments are made in September.)

MATHEMATICS: A program designed for pupils now in grades one through six. The child will receive remedial instruction in small group situations. Developmental classes are arranged for those who wish advanced study in Modern Math.
